Data protection
Legal notices

Art. 13 of the Federal Constitution and the legal provisions of the Swiss Confederation on data protection provide that every person has the right to protection of their private sphere as well as to protection against the abusive use of data which concerns them. INFOMANIAK NETWORK SA strictly adheres to these provisions. The personal data of unregistered users is handled entirely confidentially and is not sold or transmitted to third parties.

We make every effort to fully protect our databanks from external intrusions, losses, misuse and fraud.

When accessing our website, the following data is recorded: IP address, date, time, browsing software numbering, as well as information which is generally transmitted on the operating system and respectively on the browsing software.

This data allows INFOMANIAK NETWORK SA to proceed to anonymised statistical assessments in order to recognise trends and help to improve the offer.

These rules are not, however, valid for contact to be established voluntarily, ending a contract with INFOMANIAK NETWORK SA or registering on this platform. In these cases, only the relevant contractual conditions are applicable: https://www.infomaniak.com/en/company/legal-docume...
